

Joseph as a Type of Christ

Joseph

1. Was the well-beloved son of his father (Gen. 37:3).
2. Lived in Hebron, the place of fellowship, with his father before he was sent to his brothers (Gen. 37:14).
3. His father sent him, and he was perfectly willing to go (Gen. 37:13).
4. Testified against his Brothers' sin, and they hated Him (Gen. 37:2).
5. Revealed to them the exalted position he would hold in the future, and they hated him the more (Gen. 37:5).
6. His brothers plotted against him (Gen. 37:19-20).
7. Judah sold him for twenty pieces of silver (Gen. 37:26-28).
8. Was tempted and did not yield (Gen. 39).
9. Was accused wrongfully (Gen. 39:13-18).
10. Was put in the Egyptian dungeon, the place of death, with two malefactors (Gen. 39:20).
11. One of the malefactors died and the other lived (Gen. 40:21-22).
12. Was raised from the place of death by the king of the land (Gen. 41:14).
13. Was given all power in Egypt (Gen. 41:42-44).
14. After his exaltation took Gentile bride to share his Glory (Gen. 41:45).
15. Acknowledged to be the savior of the people and their ruler (Gen. 47:25).
16. All must get their bread (physical life) through Joseph (Gen. 41:55-57).
17. Gave all honor to the king, and delivered all things into his hands (Gen. 47:14-20).
18. Knew the past history of his brothers (Gen. 43:33).
19. When his brothers humbled themselves before him and threw themselves on his mercy, he freely forgave them (Gen. 44:45).
